FOREWORD

It is with pride, and pleasure, that the Mississippi Genealogical Society presents Volume X of the Mississippi Cemetery and Bible Series.

It will be noted that many of the Bible records published in this book tie in with previously published ones and in many instances, with gravestone records in other volumes. It is our desire to make the compiling of a Mississippi family line as easy, and as pleasurable, as possible for our researchers.

We are again indebted to Miss Christine Berry for the splendid index of Volume X.

They settled first in Pennsylvania; then moved to Augusta Co. Va., where John Anderson acquired a land grant of 747 acres in 1738. In 1745, he was appointed Judge in Augusta County, with the title of "Magistrate."

John Anderson & wife, Jane, had 4 sons - (1) Robert, who married Ann Thompson of Augusta Co., Va.: (2) Andrew: (3) James, who married Agnes Craig: and (4) William, who married Catharine Blair. All 4 sons served in the Revolutionary War. He had 2 daughters - Margaret, who married James Allen, and Jane, who married 1st, Hugh Alldn & 2nd, Wm. Craig.

William Anderson (m. Catharine Blair), son of John, served as Captain in the Rev. War. In 1784, he removed to Kentucky with the Trimbles, Maffetts and others. Ref: Waddell's "Annals of Augusta Co., Va., 1726-1871," published 1902.

Charles Anderson, 4th child of Wm. & Catharine Blair Anderson, was born in 1786 in Jessamine Co., Ky.: removed to Maury Co., Tenn., near Columbia, where he married Margaret Russell. Charles was in the Creek War in 1814, and was also under Jackson in the Battle of New Orleans. About 1818, he moved to Lawrence Co., Alabama, and settled in the fertile Tenn. River valley. In Dec. 1837, he sold his land, about 1200 acres, in Alabama and moved to Pontotoc Co., Mississippi, where he died in 1857. At his death he was the 2nd largest land owner in the county and owned about 300 slaves.

Note: Gilbert McKown (Cowan) was born in Ireland 1736. He married Lady

Jane Crawford in Ireland, and because of her family's opposition to the marriage. they immigrated to America. Jane Crawford McKown died after giving birth to 2 children - Samuel McKown and Elizabeth McKown, who married a McGill.

Gilbert married 2nd, Martha Snodgrass in Pennsylvania - record not found. He returned to Ireland and brought his father, Andrew McKown, to America. Andrew lived to the ripe old age of 114 years; he died at home of his son, Gilbert, Jr., and was buried near their dwelling place (in the front corner of the meadow to the left of the gate.) The house that Gilbert built just out of Gerrardstown, Berkeley County, West Va., in 1765-70, is still standing and occupied by a McKown descendant; also, the small stone house in the corner of the yard that Andrew lived in, is still occupied. Andrew McKown was born in 1683: died in 1797.

The will of Gilbert McKown, Sr., is on file in the Court House at Martinsville, Berkeley County West Va. It is found in Will Book No. 3, p. 548. He mentions son, Samual McKown, and daughter, Elizabeth McGill, children by 1st wife, Lady Jane Crawford. The McGills moved to Green County, Kentucky, where the whole family died of a fever. He also mentions daughters-Rebecca Hair (wife of Janes Hair; Ann Mercer; Mary Lamon (wife of Robert Lamon, Sr.); Rachell and son, Isaac and a minor son, Gilbert.

Gilbert McKown's Revolutionary service is published in the "Official Roster of Militia in Berkeley County, West Virginia," by Marjorie K. Templeton, 1949, p. 7. This official militia roster of Berkeley County was restored by the William Henshaw Chapter, DAR. The original, of which this is a copy, is filed in the office of the County Clerk in the Martinsburg Court House, West Virginia.

Gilbert McKown was one of the 5 Trustees to establish Gerrardstown, West Virginia, in Berkeley County, 1784-87. He and Andrew McKown both signed the "Petition of Dissenters" of the Tuscarora Congregation, which original petition is still hanging on the wall inside the church; a copy is in the Archives in Richmond, Virginia. This old church first appeared in ecclesiastical records about 1760, but it is thought to be much older. The old church was repaired and is still in use. This petition, signed in 1776, requests religious liberty.

Hatty Wooten Harmon Roberds (Mrs. Wm. Green) is the great, great, great granddaughter of Gilbert McKown, Sr., and his wife, Martha Snodgrass McKown, through their daughter, Mary, who married Robert Lemon, Sr., Revolutionary soldier. Mrs. W. G. Roberds, with other relatives, placed markers at the graves of Gilbert, Martha and Andrew McKown in the cemetery at Gerrardstown, West Virginia. - Hatty Wooten Harmon Roberds (Mrs. Wm. Green)

Andrew McKown came from Ireland, Ulster Province, lived to be 114 years old.

Gilbert McKown, son of Andrew, was born in Ireland in 1736 before his father came to America. He fought in the Revolutionary War and was at Yorktown when Cornwallace surrendered, October 19, 1781. MARION FRANKLIN HARMON, SR., BIBLE

Address - Aberdeen, Monroe County, Mississippi
Present owner - Hatty Wooten Harmon Roberds (Mrs. Wm. Green)
Address - 4844 Windermere Terrace, Jackson, Mississippi

Date Bible published - 1881

Note: Rev. Marion Franklin Harmon, Sr., born in Adair County, Kentucky, Nov. 25, 1861, was the oldest child of Creed Washington and Louisa Smith Harmon; a grandson of Roland and Cassandra White Harmon and a great grandson of George and Nancy Bethsheares (Beshares, Brashers) Harmon.

Born during Civil War times, he received his early education as a country youth in the county public schools. When quite young, he entered Columbia Christian College and began working his way through as a janitor to the college and the church. In 1883, when only 22 years old, he was ordained to the Christian ministry by John S. Sweeney, a great preacher from a family of great preachers. Rev. Harmon was a faculty member of the Columbia Christian College and in 1885 he became president of this same college where he had had his beginnings as the janitor.

Rev. Harmon had two main avenues to his career. First and foremost, serving his Lord when and where he was most needed, saving churches and building new churches. He always accepted calls where he was needed most in complete disregard of personal gain. His second interest was writing and publishing, frequently supporting his family by this means while building a church from which he received no salary.

His first publishing effort was establishing the Columbia Herald in Adair County, Kentucky, a weekly newspaper which he began publishing Jan. 6th, 1886. He established the Harmon Publishing Company when he first moved to Jackson, Mississippi, in 1891.

He wrote the history of the Christian Churches in Mississippi in 1929, which is the only history of the Mississippi churches and is a recognized authority. Copies are rare and much in demand. Then being a man of unusual wit himself,and appreciating the humor of the negro race, he published in 1914, in Louisville, Ky., a book he called "Negro Wit and Humor." It contains folklore, folksongs, race peculiarities and race history. In 1904, "The Christian Pulpit" was published in Jackson, Mississippi - a monthly magazine devoted to the interests of Christian preachers everywhere. In the Jackson, Miss., Daily News, Tuesday, Nov. 22, 1938, there was published in full an address given by Rev. M. F. Harmon, headed "Half Century Ministry," in which he gave a complete history of the First Christian Church in Jackson, Miss. This is most interesting for it mentions many residents of Jackson in the 1890's who have long since passed to their reward.

Rev. Harmon served many churches in his 50 years of ministry. His first pastorate was Bowling Green, Kentucky. He was called to the First Church of Jackson, Miss., Jan. 1st, 1891, serving this Church again from Jan. 1, 1904 to Jan. 1, 1906, when he resigned to organize and build a church in West Jackson on Capitol Street and Grand Avenue.

Other pastorates in Mississippi were Aberdeen, where he built the present church, Okolona and Columbus. He held pastorates in Nashville, Tenn.; Terrell and Oak Cliff, Texas; Atlanta, Georgia and Mobile, Ala. In 1913, he was called to the Third Christian Church of Louisville, Ky. He later resigned this pastorate in order to organize and build the Shawnee Christian Church which is now one of the largest churches in that city.

He left a heritage that cannot be measured by this world's standards and his children and grandchildren call his blessed. His influence is felt more and more as the measure of his Christian influence is compared to the standards of today. Ref: (1) "History of the Columbia Christian Church," by Perry L. Stone, pastor: (2) "Perrins General History of Kentucky," pub. 1887. This gives much history of Adair County families. (3) "Harmon-Harman Genealogy and Biography," by John Wm. Holy Matrimony was celebrated between M. F. Harmon of Columbia, Ky. and M. S. Squires of Columbia, Kentucky on Thursday, Oct. 12th, 1882, at 7 P.M. by F. S. Shearer. Witness: Dr. B. T. Wood - Dr. F. H. Curd.

M. F. Harmon and Hatty Price Wooten married May 13th, 1890, Tuesday 6:30 A.M. Hattie Wooten Harmon and William Green Roberds married Wednesday 8 O'clock, Feb. 25, 1914, Louisville, Kentucky.

SCOTT WATSON BIBLE

Address - Near Russum, Claiborne County, Mississippi
Present owner - Wallace Watson Weatherly
Address - 804 East Beach Blvd, Gulfport, Harrison County, Mississippi

Bible published by - Butler's Edition
Date published - 1855
Copied and submitted by - Gordon M. Wells
Address - 2424 Harriotte Avenue, Jackson 9, Mississippi

Note: Scott Watson (1805-1859) married Clara E. Stampley (born ca. 1830, census record), daughter of Soloman Bartlett and Julia Ann Corbett Stampley of Jefferson County, Mississippi and Tensas Parish, Louisiana. For more information on this family see the newspaper, "Fayette Chronicle," printed in Fayette, Jefferson Co., Miss., dated June 4, 1959 and January 7, 1960.

After the War Between the States, the family moved to their plantation, "Osceola," near St. Joe, Louisiana. The governess, who spent years tutoring the children, wrote a book, "Dead Man's Shoes." The family bought the plates and most of the volumes were destroyed; only one volume is known to survive.

Scott Watson, returning from a trip abroad, died in Baltimore, Maryland. His body was brough back and buried on his plantation near Russum, Claiborne Co., Miss. Ref: Miss. Genealogical Society's "Cemetery and Bible Records," Vol. IV, p 117.

This writer believesthat James H. Watson (1779-1830) was the father of Scott Watson; married 2nd on Sept. 3, 1807 in Jefferson Co., Miss., Anna Marie Cable. Scott Watson was born in 1805 and we wonder if his mother may not have been her sister, since Mr. Weatherly claims descent from the Cable, Carradine and Pipes families - all pioneer settlers of Jefferson County, Miss. James H. Watson is buried on the Alcorn Road, just a few miles south of Russum, the site of the Scott Watson plantation. Ref: Mississippi Genealogical Society's Cemetery and Bible Records, Vol. VII, p. 175.

Mr. Weatherly states that it has come down through the Davenport branch of his family that when the time came to name the town of Port Gibson, Mississippi, since the Davenports and the Samuel Gibson family were the most prominent, it was agreed the last part of the Davenport name be used with the family name of Gibson, hence Port Gibson. Many have assumed, as I have, that it had been reversed from the original name, Gibson's Landing or Gibson's Port.

Dr. J. R. Weatherly (b. ca 1812) and Robert C. Weatherly (b. ca 1822) were brothers, and married mother and daughter. They were said to have been from Maryland. -Gordon M. Wells

Note: This Bible was in the possession of Mrs. Naomi Fowler (1837-1913) of Fayette, Jefferson Co., Mississippi, whose home burned. She had sent a copy of part of the Bible record to Mrs. Pearl Harmanson Atkinson, Biloxi, Miss., about 1912. Naomi Stampley Fowler was the 10th child of John I.

and Elizabeth Ann Compton Stampley of Stampley Station, Jefferson Co., Miss. A copy of this Stampley Bible may be found in the Adams County, Mississippi, W.P.A. Historical Research Project #6055-4120, on file in Miss. Department of Archives, Jackson, Mississippi.

The Stampley family was in the Natchez District as early as 1777; evidence - the British Land Grant to Margaret Stampley that year on file in Pensacola. Henry Stampley's will, dated Oct. 1781, proven Jan. 10, 1789, named wife, Margaret, who later married James Baird, and 3 sons - Jacob, Peter and William Stampley.

Jacob Stampley (Henry's son) married 1st, Mary Cole, dau. of James Cole, Sr. (for whom Cole's Creek was named), and 2nd, Caroline Corbit.

Henry Stampley's brother, John Stampley (both sons of Jacob Stampley - 1700-1754) came in 1763 from Switzerland to Virginia, where he served in the Revolution; he later came to the Natchez District; his descendants moved to Yazoo County, Miss. in 1829. A 3rd brother, George Stampley, left a will in Jefferson County, Miss. in 1802. The first Baptist Church in the Mississippi Territory met in 1790 in the home of Margaret Stampley. Stampley Station, below Fayette, was named for the family. Ref: (1) Alice Tracy Welch's Family Records Miss. John Henry Harmanson (m. Rachel Selser), Edward L. Harmanson (m. Susannah H. Selser) and Patrick Harmanson were brothers from Norfolk, Va. Aunt Margarette Parker was related to Martha, wife of George Washington. Nimrod Selser was A. D. Harmanson's grandfather; his mother, Rachel Selser Harmanson, was dau. of Nimrod and Martha Stampley Selser. The Selsers settled Selsertown on the Natchez Trace, 12 miles north of Natchez, near the Jefferson County line and Emerald Mound (a very large Indian mound). Ref: Alice Tracy Welch's Family Records Miss. Revolutionary Soldiers, pub. 1955, pp 271-73. It is believed by this writer that India Selser, who married Soloman Bartlett Stampley, was a daughter of George & Rachel Newman Selser.

Cemetery - Gainesville
Location - Hancock Co., Mississippi, on the east side of Pearl River, 12 miles from Picayune, Mississippi
Copied by - Miss Frances Cook, Crystal Springs, Miss. and Mrs. Earl Cook Hastings, Hattiesburg, Miss.
Date copied - July 8, 1962

Note: Gainesville, Mississippi is now a ghost town, a victim of the quest for the moon. Founded by Capt. Ambrose Gaines one hundred and seventy five years ago, this small river town was a thriving and prosperous lumber manufacturing place until the late 1800's but in more recent years has been a one-store, one-church, twelve family community. When the United States government needed a missile site for testing Saturn and Nova rocket engines the area along the Pearl river which included Gainesville, Logtown, Westonia, Napoleon, Bayou la Croix and Flat Top, was selected.

In Gainesville, high on a bluff overlooking the river was the Gainesville cemetery where for a century and a half the inhabitants of that section buried their dead. Shaded by age-old, moss draped live oaks, giant magnolias and cape jasmines, this tranquil spot was marked for destruction. On July 8, 1962, a short time before the U. S. Engineers began the work of removing the bodies, the gravestone inscriptions were carefully copied so that this vital information might be saved for posterity. Many members of the old French families who came to this section in the 1700's were buried there. Although in an unmarked grave, Capt. Ambrose Gaines is reported to have been interred there, too. Also, Leonard Kimball Nicholson, editor and publisher of the New Orleans Times Picayune, whose mother, Eliza Jane Poitevent Nicholson, was a well known novelist and poet who used the pen name of "Pearl Rivers" until her death in 1896. The mother is interred in a Metairie, La. Cemetery. The old Poitevent home, a large and imposing structure, located across the road from the cemetery, was dismantled some years ago and moved by members of the family to Waveland, Miss.

Another historical place marked for destruction is the old Weston home which has been the home of five generations of the descendants of Henry Weston, who came to Mississippi early in the 1800's from Skowhegan, Maine. He first worked as a mill hand for the Kimball lumber interests but eventually built a vast lumber empire of his own. Henry Weston was the grandson of Joseph Weston who served in the American Revolution from the State of Maine. Henry Weston married Lois Mead, daughter of Stephen Mead, a native of Bedford, Mass., and his wife, Adeline, who was a native of Wilmington, N. C. They were both buried in the Gainesville cemetery.

Note: Bethany Presbyterian Church was organized in the little hamlet of Ariel in Amite County, Mississippi, in 1808 and was one of the first Presbyterian churches in the Mississippi Territory. Among the earliest members were - James Smyley, Sr., of Scotland, John Smylie, Sarah Smylie, Moses Fleming, Nathaniel and Margaret Smylie, Elizabeth Spears, Samuel Nesmith, Moses Gordon, John Roberts, Roger Dunn, James and John Anderson, Alexander Calender, William A. Phillips, and John Watson. Many of these people were Scots who migrated from North Carolina. The Smiley-Smylie families have been the backbone of the Bethany Church for 155 years.

The little cemetery is beautifully kept and grave stones are in good condition. Ref: (1) Casey and Otken "Amite County Records," (2) J. Carruth Flowers, Jackson, Miss.

PINTARD CEMETERY

Cemetery - Pintard
Location - Jefferson County, Mississippi, on approximately Sec. 27,T9N, R1E.
Copied & submitted by - Gordon M. Wells.
Address - 2424 Harriotte Avenue, Jackson 9, Mississippi
Guide - Miss Dee Geoghagan, Fayette, Jefferson County, Mississippi
Date copied - October 1962.

Note: This cemetery is on the Locust Hill plantation, presently (1962) owned by Dr. Will T. Harper of Fayette, Mississippi. It is within sight of his summer home.

John Pintard was born on the Island of Madaira (Madeira), off the coast of north Africa, a possession of Portugal. This writer believes that the Pintards were Spanish. In Claiborne's History, p. 262, he states that Don Vincent Pintard, the Spanish Magistrate, who lived at Pinkneyville, the southern part of Wilkinson County (Miss.) near the Louisiana line in 1804, was captured and mistreated by Nathan and Samuel Kemper. In Carter's Papers VI. p. 438, he states that Vizente Pintado (Pintardo) was the Spanish Surveyor General in 1813 at Pensacola, Florida. Possibly both references are to the same man, and the father of our John Pintard.

We find only 2 marriages, a son and possibly a grandson, both marrying at Natchez: - Claudius Pintard to Frances B. "Fannie" January/ daughter of Phillip Barbour January/ on 3/1/1858; and G. Scott Pintard to Page W. Morris on 4/21/1898/ Claude J. Pintard of Jefferson County married 20 Oct. 1885, Laura S. Hyatt. Ref: Fayette (Miss.) Chronicle, Nov. 6, 1885. Claude Pintard was commissioned Chancellor for the Fourth District in Jefferson County, in 1890. Ref: Goodspeed's I, p. 177. Gordon M. Wells.

ANTIOCH BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY

Cemetery - Antioch Baptist Church
Location - Rankin County, Mississippi, about 12 miles south of Pelahatchie, on State Hwy #43, in the extreme eastern part of the county, near the Smith County Line.
Copied and submitted by - Eva Jones Martin (Mrs. Verey G.)
Address - P. O. Box 513, State College, Oktibbeha County, Mississippi.
Date copied - October 10 & 11, 1962.

Note: On March 5th, 1836, the Antioch Baptist Church was organized in the eastern part of Rankin County, Miss. The charter members of the church were - Luke Patrick, John Patrick, Grace Patrick, Susan Walters, Sarah Ponder, Rosean Purvis and William Walters. The first pastor was Cader Price. The present structure was erected in 1902. It is an unusually well built and well kept country church, with stained glass windows.

The pioneer settlers of this community migrated from S. C. Among them were Luke Patrick and his wife, Gracy Heaton Patrick who came from Arlington District, S.C. They are buried in the Walters Grove Cemetery, about 2 miles from Antioch Church. These graves have been topped recently with concrete and enclosed with an iron fence. Ref: (1) Mississippi Genealogical Society's Cemetery and Bible Records, Vol. IX, pub. 1962, pp 154-55: (2) same book, Vol. VIII, pub. 1961, p. 62.

Luke and Gracy Heaton Patrick had 4 sons - Ellis, Joe, Jim and John, and 6 daughters. Two of their daughters married Walters men; two married Purvis men and two married Till men. This information concerning the family of Luke & Gracy Heaton Patrick was given me by Mr. Henry Walters, who lives in the Antioch community, and who is a great grandson of Luke and Gracy.

Ellis Patrick (son of Luke & Gracy Patrick) and his wife, Susan Holloway Patrick (daughter of William & Damie Holloway), lived on their plantation near Antioch Church. They reared 10 children - Luke, Henry, Joe, James, Wade. Robert (Dr. Robert E.), Damie (married John Myers), Anne (married Lawrence Myers), Cynthia (married Weldon Donnell) and Callie (married Frank Baugh).

An annual reunion is held at Antioch Church and descendants throughout the South and from other states gather. From an old newspaper clipping of one of these events, it states - "Guests departed with the feeling that the Carolinas sent the Irish South, and with them came laughter, love of fellowship and a desire to perpetuate family ties!"

SUMMIT JEWISH CEMETERY

Cemetery - Jewish
Location - Summit, Pike County, Mississippi
Copied by - Mrs. J. Howard Ryan
Address - Summit, Mississippi
Date copied - 1961
Submitted by - John H. Parker, Liberty, Amite County, Mississippi

Note: On a peaceful, shady hilltop, on the northeastern perimeter of the town, is the Summit Jewish cemetery. Accessible only by a narrow gravel road, the fight to keep the premises clean and neat is a never ending one.

Here are buried a number of the true pioneers of the infancy and early days of Summit. The ancient tombstones, some with symbols of an abiding faith, many lettered in old Hebrew, recall such familiar names to native Summitonians as Heidenreich, Kiersky, Levy, Moyse, Hiller and others.

The Jewish cemetery is a historic bit of land---the final resting place of many of the builders of our town. Dorothy Carroll Ryan (Mrs. J. Howard)

Note: John Felder, for whom the cemetery, church and campground were named, was the son of Peter Felder, a Revolutionary soldier (b. 1759 in Orangeburg, Dist., S. C.; died in Amite Co., Miss.). John Felder was born May 8, 1793 in Barnwell District, S.C.: migrated to Mississippi, and settled on Tangipahoa Creek, 1½ miles from the present location of Magnolia, in Pike County. He married Elizabeth Sandell on October 15, 1812. In 1840 he moved from Tangipahoa to a farm on Topisaw Creek and with Christian Hoover, Hardy Thompson, David Winborne, Matthew McEwen, Samuel Whitworth, and Silas Catchings, established Topisaw Campground (more recently known as Felder's Campground). The children of John and Elizabeth Sandell Felder were: (1) Mary Catherine who married Seaborn Alford; (2) Wyatt Wesley; Elizabeth Griffin; Gabriel Nally; Levi Darius; Robert Henry, Simeon Noble and Minerva.

On a high hill, overlooking the church and campground, where campmeetings have been held regularly since 1843, one will find the beautiful cemetery, shaded by giant live oaks and pine. Here, John and Elizabeth Felder, all of their children and many other members of this illustrious family, are buried.

WINTERGREEN CEMETERY

Cemetery - Wintergreen
Location - Claiborne County, Mississippi, in the town of Port Gibson
Copied and submitted by - Gordon M. Wells
Address - 2424 Harriotte Avenue, Jackson 9, Mississippi
Date copied - March 1 and 2, 1959

Note: Claiborne County, Mississippi was established January 27, 1802, 15 years before the adoption of the first Constitution of the State. Port Gibson was chosen as the county seat and named for one of the pioneer citizens of the county, Samuel Gibson, who had his plantation where the town is now located.

Many of the pioneer settlers, from the New England and seabord states, are buried in Wintergreen. This is such a large cemetery that it is being given in sections: the first appeared in this publication, Volume VIII, pp 121-128, pub. 1961; the 2nd installment appeared in Volume IX, pp 122-134, pub. 1962. This is the 3rd installment; the 4th and last one will follow in the next Volume.
